Membership Term – Members join for an indefinite term and are required to pay annual dues to remain in good standing. Only those in good standing receive all the benefits of membership. Membership dues are delinquent if not paid prior to June 1st of current year. Members who do not pay dues on time are charged a $75.00 late payment fee and ultimately if they are in arrears for 2 years, are dropped from membership.

ICP Biennial Conference – ICP conferences are held every odd numbered year. Members will receive conference discounts. Members who are not in good standing with dues will not be allowed to register until dues are paid in full. Unless invited by the ICP, all presenters (oral and poster) must be members of the ICP. We encourage our members to remain active, and we appreciate your support and dedication.

By-law 6: Membership

3.2 Constituent Members - Constituent Members of the College shall be those individuals who have completed an accredited formal prosthodontic training program or are licensed as prosthodontists by the governing body for dentistry in their country or state or its equivalent.

3.4 Affiliates - Affiliates are individuals who do not qualify for constituent membership because they have not completed formal prosthodontic training nor are they licensed as prosthodontists by the governing body for dentistry in their country or state, or their equivalents, but have demonstrated sustained contributions to prosthodontics. Affiliates may not vote in College business or elections and may not hold elective office.

6.1 General Requirements

A. Submission of Applications – All applications or nominations for membership in any category, or for changes in category, must be submitted to the Secretary. The Secretary must also receive appropriate documentation of qualifications and the appropriate fees before referring the application or nomination to the membership committee.

B. Review of Membership Applications - The membership committee shall review applications and proposals for constituent, life, honorary, organizational and affiliate membership, verify information submitted, seek additional information, if necessary, and if satisfied of the validity of each applicant's credentials, consider admission to membership.

C. Approval of Membership - The membership committee shall have the authority to approve the admission of applicants to membership in Affiliate, Constituent and Life categories. The membership committee shall make recommendations to the Board regarding applications for organizational membership and nominations for honorary membership. The granting of organizational membership and honorary membership shall be the prerogative of the Board.

The ICP is a nonprofit public benefit corporation, formed and organized under the Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law of the State of California (Sections 5110 et seq. of the Corporations Code of the State of California). Tax Status June 30, 1998 The Internal Revenue Service determined that the College is exempt from federal income tax under section 501 (a) of the Internal Revenue Code, as an organization described in Section 501 © (3) of the Code. Accordingly, contributions to the College, which may be in the form of cash, checks, securities, books, works of art, et cetera, are deductible for the United States of America income tax as is provided for in Section 170 of the Code. In addition, bequests, legacies, devises, transfers, and gifts to or for the benefit of the College are deductible for estate and gift tax purposes if such meet the applicable provisions of Sections 2055, 2106 and 2522 of the Code.
